Welcome Message

Dear Delegates,
Guests, & Esteemed Colleagues,

It is with great pleasure and honor that ISSCM Patna branch welcome you to the 13th East Zone Critical Care Conference in the historic city of Patna, Bihar. ISSCM will bring together leading minds, passionate practitioners, and emerging voices in the field of critical care from across the eastern region and beyond its boundaries.

This year the theme of EZCCON 2025 is Resilience and Readiness in Critical Care: Strengthening Critical Care Systems

Over the next months, we look forward to engaging discussions, thought-provoking presentations, and fruitful collaborations that will advance the standards of critical care medicine. The sessions have been meticulously curated to reflect the latest developments, challenges, and innovations in our field.

Patna, with its rich cultural heritage and vibrant academic spirit, provides the perfect backdrop for this confluence of knowledge and experience. We encourage you to take this opportunity not only to learn and share but also to connect, reflect, and recharge.

On behalf of our organizing committee, we extend our heartfelt thanks to all the delegates, faculty, and sponsors for their fantastic support and participation. Your presence truly makes this event meaningful and impactful.

Welcome once again - and let us make this conference a memorable and enriching experience for all.

Warm regards,
Organizing Committee
